2010 CAMPAIGN

partnering with

$3 - $1 CIDA
MATCHING
PROJECT

The Business of Women and Food

Women who are uneducated and unskilled struggle to provide for their children. Living in remote villages, many husbands have left to seek employment elsewhere. Through this micro-enterprise agriculture business program women are being equipped to provide for present and future needs.

- Business training for one woman: $130
- Microcredit service for one woman: $75
- Microcredit service for a solidarity group: $375
- Trees: 125 seedlings: $50

Remember, all funds raised will be multiplied by 3 from the Canadian International Development Agency!!
